- Acts as liaison for the organization with the approval of the CEO and the Board of Directors.
- Excellent written communication skills for the purpose of writing grants and executive letters.
- Works with CFO to submit budgets as appropriate.
- Adheres to the organization's mission.
- Maintains proficient knowledge of organization's history and programs to explore new opportunities for the organization to apply.
- Assists with the execution of development department's strategy.
- Furnish prospective funders with supporting documents.
- Maintain records in hard copies and computer databases.
- Works with Public Relations Coordinator to provide media content (newspapers, cable TV, radio, web sites, etc.) of newsworthy events, advertising and press releases.
- Submits monthly reports and is responsible for the presentation of the annual report at the end of the year.
- Oversees and organizes fundraising activities and drafts and distributes materials to promote fundraising efforts.
- Attends various bidders' conferences, pre-proposal, mandatory TA sessions and technical workshops.
- Reviews proposals/applications for completeness and compliance with program guidelines.
- Works closely with the Director to plan and implement a successful grant-funding program designed to support organizational needs and strategic goals.
- Maintains databases, tracks statistics, and assists with other funding-related projects.
- Participates in the development, implementation, and presentation of training workshops for staff involved in grants management and compliance with funder regulations.
- Timely submission of performance reports.
- Responsible for adhering to schedule and utilizing the online time management system to maintain up-to-date records of time worked.
- Attend grant related and mandatory meetings as requested by the CEO.
- Special projects and other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in English, professional writing, communications, or related field preferred; preference to candidates currently enrolled in a graduate school program in the noted fields.
- At least 3 years of experience as a grant writer in the public or non-profit sector.
- Proven track-record with securing federal, state, and/or foundation grants.
- Proven experience in organizing general fundraising events and activities.
- Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written.
- Excellent organizational skills.
- Excellent research skills.
- Creative, positive approach toward problem-solving, collaboration and teamwork.
- Succeeds in fast-paced, diverse environments.
- Takes initiative in anticipating and responding to change.
- Driven to meet deadlines.
- Spanish / English language fluency desirable, but not required.
- Proficient knowledge of computer systems and applications such as Microsoft Office products, specifically Word, Excel, Access, and Outlook, as well as video-conferencing platforms like zoom.
- Ability to understand the needs of both the agency (grantee) and organization offering the funding (grantor).
- Ability to interact effectively and professionally with persons from diverse cultural, socioeconomic, education, racial, religious, ethnic and professional backgrounds.
- Must be able to work under flexible project based schedule requirements with hard deadlines. This may include evenings and weekends, and may require little notice regarding job needs.
